SYNOPSIS

The 2007 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl had it all - trickery, drama and a win by the underdog as Boise State downed Oklahoma, 43-42 in overtime, in one of the most dramatic finishes in BCS history!

The Broncos appeared to be finished when Oklahoma cornerback Marcus Walker intercepted an Offensive MVP Jared Zabransky pass and returned it for a touchdown to put the Sooners ahead 35-28 with 1:02 remaining. However, on the ensuing drive Zabransky hit Drisan James at Oklahoma's 35, who lateraled to Jerard Rabb, who raced in for a touchdown with 7 seconds left in regulation.

Overtime started with Oklahoma scoring on an Adrian Peterson touchdown run. The Broncos answered with Vinny Perretta's fourth-down touchdown pass to Derek Schouman. With Boise State down by a point, Boise State head coach Chris Petersen decided to go for the victory. On the game's decisive play, Zabransky faked a pass, then handed the ball behind his back to tailback Ian Johnson, who raced into the end zone for the two point conversion and the win.

The DVD includes the commercial-free complete FOX Sports game broadcast as well as special bonus features highlighting the Broncos perfect season, a must have for any football fan!
